Over the years we hope to build up that reputation some more as well as gain your confidence for considerate and dignified mortuary service. Feel free to call on us any time of the day or night, no matter what company you are insured with.

Two modern ambulances have been purchased for the funeral home so that one will always be on hand for any emergency. A Cadillac and Chevrolet are as available to you as the nearest telephone. If an EMERGENCY arises, call us for AID.

The Emergency Aid Insurance Company is happy and proud to announce the opening of its fourth funeral home in Alabama. With mortuaries located strategically throughout the state, it is now possible for the company to efficiently service all of its policyholders. It has been our idea to put in the most modern equipment and provide impressive and dignified

Small Kentucky Town

To Get $1,000,000 Plant VERSAILLES, Ky. - The small town of Versailles will be the site of a new $1,000,000 plant. The factory and office building will have about 150,000 square feet of floor space and will be built of brick and steel. The firm will offer empleyment to about 300 people. The town, through a municipal bond issue, will build the plant to company specifications. The bond issue was made possible through a 1948 law authorizing communities to issue bonds for industrial projeets in the public interest. The company will occupy the plant under a long-term lease and rent will retire the bonds.

The company is the world's largest producer of window channels for automobiles and a major producer of automobile locks, metal stampings, mechanical rubber, and plastic items. At present it has a backlog of $7,000,000 in military orders for tank tracks, shell parts and carbine rebuilding. The factory will be built on a 30acre tract of land about a half mile

Peanut Bowl Bid Has To Be Passed Up; No Release from Ozark

get released from a two-year contract with Ozark, the Higgs gridders won't be able to play in the Peanut Bowl, S. J. Casey. high school principal, told the Lions club at the school lunch room Tuesday night. Mr. Casey said Elba had been invited to play but could mof. accept unless legal and moral erponsibilities were thrown side and the Tigers did not henor their obligation with Ozark Practically every possibility was examined and tried in an effort to enable the team to accept the bid, he said. Because of an athletic association ruling limiting prep teams to 10 games, one contest had to be eliminated. Ozark was approached on the idea of cancelling the game Friday but turned it down. They would not cancel or take any amount of money the school could offer in place of playing the contest.

They insisted that Elba fuffill the contract Earlier. Geneva had been approached and asked if they wouldn't play Elba's B team. Their coach answered with an
